

Special Care of Children's Eyes

Poor eyesight of children is not often noticed until the child is sent to school, when the defect becomes more pronounced by reason of close work. In this condition study becomes a burden on account of eye strain and headache and is a constant drain upon the whole nervous system.

DR. B. A. BAER
EYE SPECIALIST.
MANUFACTURING OPTICIAN
331 Washington Ave.

Begin the New Year Right

by opening an account with the County Savings Bank and Trust Company,
506 Spruce Street.

We receive deposits of one dollar and upwards, and pay 4 per cent. interest thereon.

L. A. WATERS, President.
O. S. JOHNSON, Vice-Pres.
A. H. CHRISTY, Cashier.

Calendars

for Photo Print

Reduced from 50c to 25c
25c to 10c
10c to 5c

Hornbaker,
211 Washington Ave.

Cigar Prices That are Right

50 in. 25 in.
box. box.
Morris' Perfecto..... 1.25
Bathinder..... 1.25
Counselor..... 1.25
Tom Kene..... 1.25
Louis Mann..... 1.25
Morris' Magna..... 1.25
Capadua..... 1.25
Owl Brand..... 1.25
Cubana..... 1.25
G. W. Childs..... 1.25
Jann P. Fortuondo..... 1.25
Lillian Russell..... 1.25
Robert Burns..... 1.25
Corn Tanager..... 1.25
Langford Perfecto..... 1.25
Cigars packed 12 in box at 25c and 50c per box.

BUY HIM A PIPE.
Our line of Pipes is the talk of the town.

Smoking and Chewing Tobacco.
Old Virginia Cigarettes.
Three Black and White.
Sweet Caporal Cigarettes.

6 packs for 25c.

Floradora Cigars.
Matinee Cigars.
"Match It" Cigarettes.
Turkish Trophies.

3 packs for 25c.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
For Cash Only.

E. C. Morris
Cigar Man.
Leader of Cut Prices.
325 WASHINGTON AVENUE.

REISMAN BROS BOOK SHOP.

We have in stock a complete line of all the latest copyrights. January magazines now all here.

407 SPRUCE STREET,
New Phone, 43. Opp. Dime Bank

In and About The City

Princeton Alumni Dinner.
Error caught into our recent announcement of the coming Northwestern Princeton Alumni Association. It is to be held in the board of trade rooms January 8 instead of January 5. Speakers representing Princeton, Yale and other universities will be present.

Information Wanted.
A correspondent wants to know how to knit the Almay sweater. Can any reader answer?

DeLacy a Candidate.
Captain P. DeLacy yesterday announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for city recorder.

No Quorum Present.
There was no meeting of the Master Horsehoes' association last night owing to the failure of a quorum to put in an appearance.

His Foot Injured.
Victor Scavina had his foot lacerated yesterday by a falling timber at the Green Ridge mines. He was removed to the Lackawanna hospital.

Reunion and Reception.
The reunion and reception of the class of '99 and class of 1900, Scranton High school, will take place tonight at the Scranton Bicycle club.

Will Have Open House.
The Firemen's Relief association will hold open house all day New Year's at their rooms on Spruce street. The public is cordially invited to be present.

New Year's at St. Luke's.
The feast of Circumcision, or the civil New Year, will be observed at St. Luke's church tomorrow with celebrations of the holy communion at 7 a. m. and 9 a. m.

Physical Director Engaged.
Professor Jackson, physical director at the Wilkes-Barre Young Men's Christian association, has been engaged for the Scranton Young Men's Christian association gymnasium.

For Riding on Cars.
Fred Irving, Thomas Schall and Joseph O'Rourke, three small boys living on South Irving avenue, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Lackawanna special officers for riding on a freight train. They were each fined $2 by Magistrate Millar.

Will Present a Play.
At Holy Cross hall, tomorrow night, a play, "The Holy Night," will be presented by amateur talent drawn from the young people of Holy Cross congregation. There will also be vocal solos by Miss Mary O'Leary and William Lynett and sketches by J. J. Salmon.

Two Fine Calendars.
Mearns Bros., paper dealers, are distributing to their patrons two very fine calendars, one of which is a convenient affair for the office and the other a large and highly artistic one for the home. Nothing more beautiful than the latter has been seen in Scranton.

Crowds Paying Taxes.
It would be well for any person who desires to pay his or her taxes today to bring along a camp-chair, as it is more than likely that an hour or two will be required before they can get an opportunity to pay. The crowds which invaded the treasurer's office yesterday were so large that it required the services of two policemen to keep the people in line. Today is the last day on which taxes can be paid without a penalty.

Ball of the Stage Hands.
These theatrically inclined, and who fancy the companionship of "stage folk" will have an opportunity to indulge their liking in this respect on Tuesday evening, January 2, when the stage hands connected with the various theaters of this city give their annual reception and ball. Invitations have been forwarded to the various companies who will be playing in this city on that date, and acceptances received to date insure a large attendance from among the thespians then in Scranton.

Dr. Edwards' Anniversary.
Rev. Dr. T. C. Edwards on Sunday observed the twenty-fifth anniversary as pastor of the Welsh Congregational church of Edwardsville and a card in memory of the event was distributed. Dr. Edwards, who is well known in this city, became pastor of the church January 1, 1878. At that time the church had 100 members; received on confession of faith in the twenty-five years' ministry of Dr. Edwards, 600; total, 1,250. Dismissed by letters, etc., in the same period, 800; present membership, 145. In 1880 over 100 members were dismissed by letter to organize the Bethesda Congregational church, which has since grown to be a prosperous church of 225 members.

MITCHELL WAS DELAYED.
Is En Route to Scranton and Will Arrive This Morning.
President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, did not return to Scranton from his holiday trip to his home in Spring Valley, Ill., yesterday, as expected, owing to unexpected delays. He could not make railroad connections. He is en route, however, and will reach here this morning.

He will probably remain here until Sunday or Monday and then go to Scranton to attend the sessions of the mine strike commission.

DURVEA BOROUGH SUE.
Warnke Coal Company Wants $20,000 Damages.
The Warnke Coal company, of which Frederick Warnke, of this city, is president, has sued the borough of Durvea for damages in the sum of $20,000.

The plaintiff company has operated a coal quarry at Durvea for about three years and claims that on Aug. 5 last the borough authorities caused a stream of water to be diverted from its natural course with the result that the water backed up and permeated through a roadbed made of dirt, slate and culm and ran over the premises of the plaintiff, thus putting out the fires in the boiler room, rendering unstable the masonry and foundation walls of the washery and preventing the operation of it for a long period of time.

It is also alleged that this reduced the profits, depreciated the value of the washery and caused the plaintiff losses amounting to $20,000. It is alleged that the course of the stream was changed because an effort was made to run the company's washery during the strike.

Fresh Dressed Poultry.
Turkeys, Chickens, Ducks, etc., are offered today for your New Year's dinner and table delicacies in complete. Your order will receive prompt and careful attention if given in person or by telephone.

The Pierce Co.
119 to 114 Penn. ave.

New Year's Ice Cream.
Although we are very busy, all New Year's ice cream orders received by 1 o'clock tonight (Wednesday) will be taken care of. Will not accept orders later. J. D. Williams & Bro., 314 Lackawanna avenue.

CASES HEARD DURING YEAR

INTERESTING REPORT OF CLERK OF COURTS DANIELS.

Analysis of It Reveals That This Is a Very Law-abiding County—Of the 3440 Criminal Charges Preferred 1187 Were for Assault and Battery in Cases So Trivial That the Grand Jury Ignored 1028 of Them—Other Court Matters.

Criminal charges 3440
Convictions 154
Pleas of guilty 85

Clerk of the Courts T. P. Daniels has compiled a report of the work done by the criminal branch of the courts of this county from the opening of the October term in 1901 until the opening of the same term this year.

During that period transcripts in 3,440 criminal cases were filed with the clerk of the court. Of this number 2,749 were brought to the attention of the grand jury. In 2,111 cases the bills were ignored, and in 628 true bills resulted. Altogether 1,063 persons were tried on 590 bills. There were 738 acquittals, 154 convictions, 36 not proseques and 85 pleas of guilty. The accompanying table gives interesting statistics concerning the business of the five terms of court held during the year:

	Oct. 1901.	Dec. 1901.	Feb. 1902.	April, 1902.	June, 1902.	Total.
Cases before grand jury	1,208	518	485	552	676	3,440
True bills by grand jury	856	419	400	438	556	2,749
Ignored bills by grand jury	246	85	105	120	152	608
Number of persons tried	716	324	296	348	419	2,093
Number of cases tried	412	165	172	274	340	1,363
Number of acquittals	231	91	101	96	128	647
Number of convictions	111	112	125	152	191	599
Number of not proseques	38	19	29	22	22	120
Pleas of guilty entered	5	6	15	8	2	36
Recognitions forfeited	38	26	8	16	7	95
Amount of recognitions	$3,500	...	$300	$4,500	...	$8,300

That Lackawanna county is composed of a class of people who are naturally quiet and law abiding is shown by an analysis of the class of crimes that come before the court. When the mixed character of the population of the county is considered the showing is certainly most creditable.

While the total number of cases is seemingly large a great percentage are of a character that ought never to get beyond the office of the alderman or justice of the peace. The most common crime, 1187 were for assault and battery. The trivial or manufactured nature of most of these is attested by the fact that out of this large number there were but thirty-six convictions. These statistics concerning assault and battery cases will furnish food for reflection:

	Oct. 1901.	Dec. 1901.	Feb. 1902.	April, 1902.	June, 1902.	Total.
Cases before grand jury	411	169	157	172	245	1,154
Ignored bills by grand jury	274	159	132	150	222	1,037
True bills by grand jury	137	10	25	22	23	197
Number of persons tried	291	126	118	126	209	860
Number of cases tried	88	24	19	28	11	170
Number of acquittals	88	24	19	28	11	170
Number of convictions	62	12	12	21	30	137
Not proseques	22	1	1	5	1	30
Pleas of guilty	1	2	2	5

Of the higher grades of crime, the calendar for the year was remarkably free. Altogether, not more than 25 persons were arrested for murder and were indicted by the grand jury. The trial of these cases showed that none of them arose to the dignity of first degree. Of the seven men indicted, five were acquitted and two convicted of murder of less than the first degree.

There were no arrests for highway robbery or assault with intent to rob or steal, or horse stealing. There were thirty-eight arrests for robbery and seventeen indictments by the grand jury. Sixteen of the cases were ignored, and four of the robbery cases tried, the accused were convicted and in eight they were acquitted.

The number of cases charging larceny before the grand jury was 638 and the number of true bills, 145. The number of convictions were 25, the pleas of guilty entered, 40, while not proseques were entered in eight other cases. Eleven cases of receiving stolen goods were before the grand jury and the true bills were eight in number and two were convictions.

The grand jury considered eleven cases charging arson and found three true bills. After a trial, all of the accused were acquitted. Here are some statistics concerning arrests for violation of the liquor laws during the year:

	Self-Selling.	Tip-on.	Sun. day.	House, day, etc.
Cases before grand jury	21	21	1	2
True bills by grand jury	17	17	1	2
Number of persons tried	17	17	1	2
Cases tried	17	17	1	2
Convictions	3	3	1	2
Not proseques	1	1	1	1
Pleas of guilty	3	3	1	2

The above statistics contain very few of the cases growing out of the strike, as most of these occurred after the grand jury for the June term met.

Wills Admitted to Probate.
The will of W. Gibson Jones, late of this city, was yesterday admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Colonel Meredith L. Jones of New York. He leaves his entire estate, valued at $100,000, to his widow for her life-time, when it goes to his son, now an infant. In the event of the son dying without issue the estate goes to Colonel Jones' brother, the deceased.

The will of J. P. A. Tingley, late of Carbondale, was probated and letters testamentary granted to his widow, Calice A. Tingley.

The will of Peter Fike, late of Scott township, was admitted to probate, but no letters were granted.

The will of Frank Campbell, late of Carbondale, was also admitted to probate and letters of administration were granted to John F. Campbell.

Yesterday's Marriage Licenses.
James A. Isaac.....Scranton
Gertrude McFadden.....Scranton
John Mayock.....Buffalo
Mary King.....Scranton

Too Late to Classify.
WANTED—A first class carriage or wagon for hire.
Curran works, Linden street.

ATTENTION, SINGERS!

Alfred Wooler,
Instructor in Voice Culture and Singing.

will open his studio on New Year's day, Jan. 1, 1903, at 10 a. m. and from 2 until 6 p. m. for the express purpose of teaching voices and presenting to each applicant two of his own compositions. Any person 16 years of age or over, may apply.

Studio: Second floor, Carter Building, corner Adams and, and Linden st., Scranton, Pa.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.
David T. Williams, yesterday filed his oath of office as mine inspector with Prothonotary John Copeland.

The hearing in the Stevens habeas corpus case which was to have been held yesterday was postponed until Friday.

A number of opinions will be handed down when court meets Monday. One of the most important opinions expected is that of the case of George W. Jenkins against the city of Scranton, the tax collector case. It was argued at the last term of argument court. A number of decrees, divorces may also be handed down.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.
Sunday School of Grace Reformed Church Had Christmas Tree.

The Christmas celebration of the Sunday school of the Grace Reformed Episcopal church held last night in the church auditorium, was largely attended and was a most enjoyable affair.

There were two large Christmas trees glittering and shining, and a carefully rehearsed programme was carried out.

C. W. King, the new pastor, delivered an appropriate address, and Mrs. E. H. Ripple spoke briefly for the primary department of the school.

One of the most pleasing numbers was a motion song rendered by the following girls: Flossie Alvard, Helen Cornish, Edna May Whitney, Agnes Harkness and Susie Walter. Miss Elsie Brown sang a solo, "In Old Judea," and Miss Emily Hackett played delightfully on the violin. At the conclusion of the exercises boxes of candy were distributed among the children.

The exercises held at the Tripp Park mission on Monday night were also largely attended. They were in charge of Henry Cardev. An address was given by Rev. Mr. King, and a distribution of gifts was made.

HAD A CHRISTMAS TREE.
Old First Presbyterian Church Used For the Last Time.

The Christmas exercises of the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church, held yesterday afternoon in the old church building on Washington avenue, were especially interesting and attracted a large gathering because of the fact that it was the last time the building will be used, the work of demolishing it being scheduled to commence to-morrow.

An immense Christmas tree had been erected where the reading desk ordinarily stands and the other Christmas decorations were still in place. The children of the Sunday school, the front pews and the other members of the church sat in the rear. L. T. Mattes, the superintendent, presided.

No set programme had been arranged and the exercises were largely of an impromptu character. A. W. Dickson, who was superintendent of the school for so many years, gave one of his refreshing common sense talks to the children. He told them to let the Sunday school be their home, and to let the church be their temple, and to let the Bible be their guide.

Rev. Dr. James McLeod, the pastor, also made a brief address in which he urged the children to attend church as well as Sunday school. He had no substitute for the church, for the church is a Sunday school for the church. Every child should go to church, he said, because attendance at church is as much importance to them as attendance at Sunday school. He wished all children a happy New Year as did Superintendent Mattes.

Boxes of candy and oranges were then distributed to the children as they passed out.

LUTHERAN PASTORS' MEETING.
Was Held at Home of the Rev. A. L. Ramer.

The monthly meeting of the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Lutheran Pastors' association was held yesterday at the home of Rev. A. L. Ramer, on Pearl street, President Rev. L. Lindstruth, of Wilkes-Barre, presided. The subjects taken up for discussion were "The Study of the First Chapter of Genesis in Hebrew," and "The Study of the Second Chapter of the Book of Acts in Greek."

A sermon outline was given by Rev. H. F. J. Seneker, of Wilkes-Barre, and a paper on "The Annual Festivals in the Christian Church" was read by Rev. E. F. Rittler, of Wilkes-Barre. The subject of "The Uniformity of Pastoral Acts" was presented by Rev. E. F. Rittler, of this city. The next meeting will be held at the home of Rev. Lindstruth in Wilkes-Barre, on Jan. 27.

Those present at the meeting were: From Wilkes-Barre—Rev. L. Lindstruth, Rev. H. F. J. Seneker, Rev. E. F. Rittler, Rev. H. P. J. Seneker, Rev. J. P. Baltes; Pittston, Rev. Bender; Carbondale, Rev. F. Elfinger; Scranton, Rev. E. F. Rittler, Rev. J. C. Witke, Rev. H. A. Kunkle and Rev. A. L. Ramer.

SILK BUSINESS IS EXPANDING

FOUR MORE MILLS HAVE COME TO SCRANTON.

One Which Is to Be Located in Green Ridge Will Do Broad Weaving. The Third Ward Is to Have a Mill, and Two Are Under Way in West Scranton—This Will Make Eleven Silk Mills Within the City Limits. They Come Unbidden.

Scranton bids fair to soon rival Paterson as a silk manufacturing center. Four new mills will be under way here before springtime, and several parties are looking about the city with a view of bringing mills from other cities or starting up new mills here.

The Morrison Silk company has purchased the big building on Larch street, formerly occupied as a milk depot by the Scranton Dairy company, and will establish there a broad silk mill, capable of manufacturing any width of silk, from ribbons up.

Paul Clements is to start a silk throwing mill near the Round Woods, the Ashley Silk Throwing and Weaving company has a plant under way on Academy street, and the Killgore Silk company is building a mill on West Market street, in the Third ward.

There are already seven silk mills within the city limits, and as many more in the immediate suburban towns. It is estimated they employ upwards of 7,000 hands, some of them being worked day and night.

Of recent years the board of trade has not been inviting silk manufacturers, because of the danger of exhausting the available labor, but the mills have continued to come and it seems intend continuing.

A silk manufacturer from Paterson recently came here to establish a new mill. Secretary Seamans, of the board of trade, told him he could not advise him to come here, as he could not give him assurance that the necessary labor was available. The man went away, but the next day returned and announced that he would start a mill in Scranton and take chances on being able to get hands. The mill is being erected.

Some of the most conservative members of the board of trade unhesitatingly declared in favor of bringing in more silk mills. It will be a means of attracting more people here, they aver, and Scranton wants more people. When there is work offered the people will come, they argue.

But the board of trade is coming without invitation or any encouragement other than that which their owners can find in Scranton's advantages, and so far all of them have succeeded in getting plenty of help.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.
(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied by publication by the writer. The name of the contributor will be given, but the Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.)

Reply to Rev. Mr. Waring.
Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: In Monday morning's Tribune I read the farwold discourse of the Rev. L. H. Waring, which purported to be a reply to certain charges made by Father Valentine in one of his sermons at the Cathedral. The Reverend Waring would apparently attribute to ambition, to exaggerated pretensions, and to a purely mundane policy, certain charges made by the Rev. Mr. Waring, which were in fact, in my opinion, a part of a religious duty, whether for altar or for practical good works, could quite easily take the form of a purchase. Especially would this be the case of the other and more essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That abuses creep in as one will deny, but they were emphatically condemned in the council of Trent, and the more serious and essential requisites, such as true sorrow, humble confession, and full repentance, were shown over and over again, and had upon abiding. That